

Practice Standards

December, 2012

Section II, Case Selection

2. Publicizing of Services:

A. The availability of public defender services should be publicized by the Office of the State Public Defender, regional public defender offices, and local public defender offices. Reasonable efforts should be made to ensure that notices containing information about public defender services and how to access those services are posted conspicuously in police stations, jails and wherever else it is likely to give effective notice.