necessary to deliver public defender services within each public defender region. The chief appellate defender, in a manner consistent with statewide standards adopted by the commission pursuant to this section, may contract to provide appellate defender, professional nonattorney, and other personal services necessary to deliver appellate defender services in the state. All contracting pursuant to this section is exempt from the Montana Procurement Act as provided in 18-4-132.

(4) (a) Except as provided in subsection (4) (b), contracts ~~Contracts~~ may not be awarded based solely on the lowest bid or provide compensation to contractors based solely on a fixed fee paid irrespective of the number of cases assigned.

(b) The following contracts may be awarded based on a fixed fee:

(i) contracts for legal representation of individuals appearing before specialty courts, such as drug courts; and

(ii) contracts with consortiums for legal representation of individuals in proceedings pursuant to Title 41, chapter 3. A consortium is a group of attorneys who have joined together for representation of individuals for a fixed fee in certain types of proceedings and have agreed to monitor the monetary charges for legal representation.

(c) A contract for legal representation pursuant to subsection (3)(b) may not be awarded without approval by the commission and without verifiable assurances that effective representation will be provided.

(5) Contracting for public defender and appellate defender services must be done through a competitive process that must, at a minimum, involve the following considerations:

(a) attorney qualifications necessary to provide effective assistance of counsel that meets the standards established by the commission;

(b) attorney qualifications necessary to provide effective assistance of counsel that meet the standards issued by the Montana supreme court for counsel for indigent persons in capital cases;

(c) attorney access to support services, such as paralegal and investigator services;

(d) attorney caseload, including the amount of private practice engaged in outside the contract;

(e) reporting protocols and caseload monitoring processes;

(f) a process for the supervision and evaluation of performance;

(g) a process for conflict resolution; and

(h) continuing education requirements in accordance with standards set by the commission.

(6) The chief public defender, deputy public defenders, and the chief appellate defender shall provide for contract oversight and enforcement to ensure compliance with established standards.

(7) The commission shall adopt rules to establish reasonable compensation for attorneys contracted to provide public defender and appellate defender services and for others contracted to provide nonattorney services.

(8) Contract attorneys may not take any money or benefit from an appointed client or from anyone for the benefit of the appointed client.

(9) The commission shall limit the number of contract attorneys so that all contracted attorneys may be meaningfully evaluated.

(10) The commission shall implement rules requiring evaluation of every contract attorney on a biennial basis by the chief contract manager based on written evaluation criteria."
